PREAMBLE

During the period of the below mentioned conspiracy (from on or about June 15, 2020 to June 27, 2024) the subjects of this investigation were members or associates of the criminal organization "Slaughtery" also known as "Slattery" (hereinafter "Slaughtery") which operates primarily in and around Slattery Park, including Grand Concourse to Webster Avenue and East 181st Street to 187th Street, in Bronx County, New York.

Throughout the course of the conspiracy, the subjects of this investigation, and other members and associates of Slaughtery, both identified and unidentified were parties to an agreement to engage in acts of violence including the murder and assault of members of rival street crews; and to acquire, possess and use firearms in furtherance thereof, to defend the name of deceased Slaughtery members and to maintain and preserve the power and status of Slaughtery.

During this conspiracy, members and associates of Slaughtery sought to shoot members of rival gangs, often discussing their plans and actions utilizing various social media platforms and drill rap music.

Further, during the course of and in furtherance of this conspiracy, members and associates of Slaughtery used a distinctive system of coded language and phrases which allowed them to communicate with one another to elude others and law enforcement.
